

BRAND GUIDELINES · V1.0

The Metafloor Brand Kit.

Fonts, logos, colors and voice. Everything your team needs to represent Metafloor — on drops, decks, packaging and socials — consistently.

01 · ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

Built for consistency, at every drop.

This guide defines how Metafloor shows up visually and verbally — on the site, on packaging, on socials and on the garment itself. When in doubt, default to Void black, the liquid mark, and a voice that doesn't oversell.

01

Logo

The liquid mark in its three finishes, clear space, minimum size and the misuses to avoid.

02

Color Palette

Six brand colors with Hex, RGB and CMYK values, plus where each one is used.

03

Typography

A display face for headers, a mono face for utility, a body face for copy.

04

Voice & Tone

How we sound. Unbothered, specific, culture-first — not hype-first.

> “Everything we make should still look wet — like it just came off the floor.”
> METAFLOOR · STUDIO NOTE

The liquid mark.

The wordmark renders "Metafloor" as a soft-body, liquid letterform with a glossy highlight and two star cut-outs in the O's. Always use the exact file — never redraw or recreate the letterforms.

PRIMARY

Blood / Void

Default lockup. Use on black or near-black — hero moments, headers, apparel tags.

STAMP EDITION

Paper / Ink

Full stamp with founding mark and pillars. Reserved for packaging and print.

ICON FINISH

Liquid Chrome

High-shine metal treatment for motion, hardware, and light-catching moments.

Clear space & sizing.

The mark needs room to breathe. Maintain the minimum clear space on every side, and never scale it below minimum size or the blob detail will break apart.

Clear space

Leave padding equal to the height of the "M" on every side. Nothing — text, image, button, or edge — should intrude on this space.

Minimum size

Digital: no smaller than 120px wide. Print: no smaller than 25mm wide. For square avatars and app icons, use a cropped single-line lockup.

120 PX · 25 MM MIN

DO

- ✓ Use the provided logo files as-is
- ✓ Place on Void, Paper, or Chrome-approved backgrounds
- ✓ Keep proportions locked when resizing
- ✓ Use the correct finish for the surface (matte, print, metal)
- ✓ Respect the clear space on every side

DON'T

- ✕ Stretch, skew, rotate or distort the mark
- ✕ Redraw the letterforms or change the blob shapes
- ✕ Add extra drop shadows, outlines or bevels
- ✕ Place on busy photography without a solid scrim
- ✕ Recolor to anything outside the brand palette

The palette.

Void and Paper carry most of the weight. Blood is the accent that never sits still. Chrome brings the shine — used sparingly, never flat.

	COLOR	SHARE	BEST USED FOR

Three roles.
One system.

The wordmark is artwork, not a font. Everything else Metafloor sets in type runs on this three-role system: a heavy display face, a mono utility face, and a body face for reading.

DISPLAY — HEADLINES & STATEMENTS

Heavy, condensed, uppercase. Reserved for section titles and big claims.

POUR IT ON

UTILITY — LABELS, TAGS & DATA

Monospace. Used for eyebrows, timestamps, product codes.

EST.2023 / METAFLOOR.STORE / VOL.01 / NO.0119

BODY — PARAGRAPHS & PRODUCT COPY

Neutral, readable, no character to spare — the words carry the weight.

Built for the floor, not the runway. Every drop moves between art, music and culture — nothing sits still long enough to fade. Metafloor is worn, not displayed.

05 · VOICE

How we sound.

Metafloor talks like it's already left the room. Short lines. No exclamation points doing the selling. Culture first, product second.

WE ARE

Unbothered & specific

We name the drop, the date, the number made. Confidence reads in what we leave out, not what we add.

WE ARE

Culture-led

The room, the track, the crowd comes first. The garment shows up in service of the scene, not ahead of it.

WE ARE NOT

Hype-voiced

No "limited," no "exclusive," no all-caps urgency. Scarcity speaks for itself — we don't narrate it.

WE ARE NOT

Explaining ourselves

If a caption needs a paragraph, it's not a Metafloor caption. Say it once. Let it sit.

In practice

SAY THIS

drop 004. chrome finish. 120 pieces. gone when it's gone.

NOT THIS

We are SO excited to unveil our most EXCLUSIVE and LIMITED drop yet — don't miss out!!!
